COMMUNICATION

Mr. Editor,

Dear Sir,—The discussion in the party press and the stand taken by Mr. Riley of Gleichen in regard to the action of the Lieutenant Governor in fostering upon the people a government of his own choosing, leads me to ask, Mr. Editor, a few questions in regard therewith. It being taken for granted that editors are walking encyclopaedias and know all things.

Did Mr. Rutherford resign because he realized that he had lost the confidence of the Legislature, and, therefore, presumably of the people? If so, should not his resignation have been regarded as a cabinet resignation, and as such have carried with it the resignation of the members of that cabinet, and, therefore, why was Duncan Marshall not called upon to go back to his constituents for re-election; and why was not the leader of the party commanding the confidence of the Legislature called upon to form a government?

If, on the other hand, Mr.
Rutherford claims that he still possessed the confidence of the House, what were the causes of his resignation? His conduct in reference to the A. & G. W. R. was being investigated, and his withdrawal from office at a critical time was in itself a plea of anticipated condemnation by the Royal Commission, and in this case the new government must assume responsibility for the actions of the previous government, the A.
& G. W. R. contract included, which it would seem they are disposed to repudiate, and in this connection how will the so-called insurgent explain their rumored support of the new Cabinet, with all its inconsistencies and peculiarities?

It is also reported that there will probably be a session of the Assembly this Fall, after which will come the elections. By what authority was His Majesty's representatives made to believe that the present members had a brief from their constituents to support the patent combination even for one session? Do the people of Alberta rule in this province, or have we gone back to the middle of the Seventeenth century and an amplification of the doctrine of the "Divine Right of Kings?"

The people of Alberta have a right to know why the Premier, to whom they gave a lease of power for the next four years, resigned; that office. They have a right to know why, if Mr. Rutherford's policy still met with the favorable consideration of the electorate, some prominent member from amongst his supporters in the house was not called upon to form a government when he resigned; or if he resigned because he no longer possessed the confidence of the legislature, why was not the leader of those opposed to his legislation entrusted with His Honor's commands instead of an outsider being called upon. Or, if it was necessary to adopt an extraordinary course, should not the new government be compelled to show that the people are willing to sustain their appointment?

It has been said that "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty," and if the Lieutenant-Governor has prostituted his high office in order to assist one political party to gain an advantage over another we should be in a position to protect the Constitutional rights of British subjects.

Trusting that I am not trespassing too much upon your space, I remain,
Yours truly,
ENQUIRER.

Presbyterian Church Hall Dedicated

The new Presbyterian Church Hall was opened and dedicated on Sunday, July 17th. Rev. Mr.
Mitchell of Hillhurst, Calgary, conducted the services, assisted by the pastor Rev. J. M. Beaton.
Both services were largely attended, and everybody enjoyed Mr.
Mitchell's splendid discourses. A union service was held in the evening, the Methodist service being withdrawn. The singing of the united choirs, led by Mr. Geo.
Wickens, was enjoyed.

On the Tuesday evening a concert and supper was given by the ladies of the church. This was attended by a very large number.
As the Presbytery met in Cayley on the same day, three or four of its members took part in the program. The rest of the program was furnished by the following: Misses M. Eaglesham, G. Covey, E. Caspell, A. Stirling, and M.
Henry of High River, Mrs. F.
Walker and Mrs. Bushfield, Messrs J. Eaglesham, J. W. Wickens, J.
C. Slater and Rev. J. M. Beaton.

Everybody seemed to do justice to the splendid supper served and to enjoy the concert.

Marvellous Growth

When we consider how dry it has been, practically dry since early last fall—for we had little or no snow last winter—it is certainly marvellous how the grain has grown and is growing in this district. Constantly we are being surprised and encouraged by reports of growth that we little dreamt of hearing of this year.
We have already referred to the splendid yield of fall and spring wheat, the latter growing over 4 feet 6 inches, but on Saturday, July 23rd, we saw a sample of oats that passed our most sanguine expectations. Mr. Jas. Brown, who lives about three miles west of Cayley, brought in a splendid sample of green oats, which measured 5 feet 3 inches long. He said his whole field would run from 3 feet to the above height.
The heads of both wheat and oats were well formed and filled. Surely Southern Alberta, and especially Cayley district, stands in the front rank as a grain producing country.

At the sale of the Champion townsite last week there were 112 lots sold, amounting in value to $15,000. The total value of the whole townsite was $35,000, so it can readily be seen that the sale was a pronounced success. Several lots were turned over at 100 per cent. profit an hour after being purchased. The new townsite is one mile west and one mile south of the present site of Cleverville.
It will mean a lot of work to move all the buildings over. Outside of the hotel, which will be built by Johnson Bros. of Leduc Coulee, and the Bank of Hamilton, there will probably be very little building done this year.

The Rice Throwers

A bride has lost the use of one ear permanently, is threatened with total deafness, and has suffered indescribable tortures ever since her wedding through the practice of throwing rice at bridal couples at railway stations. All the sentiment, the poetry and the humor of the old traditions are being destroyed by modern vulgarity and exaggeration.

To place a flower in or upon the coffin of a departed friend does not come near satisfying modern tastes. There must be a cart-load of florist-made wreaths in fantastic shapes, with the cards of the donors attached. By a singular oversight we have not yet arrived at the stage at which the price of each wreath should be written on the card.

A little of superstition was followed by a little of mild humor in the old practice of throwing an old slipper or a handful of rice after, rather than at, the honeymoon carrage. To-day the great de-sternism seems to be to draw as much public attention as possible to a couple whose chief desire is to escape vulgar curiosity and criticism, and whose wishes upon such an occasion should be supreme. In Montreal, thanks to the good sense of the railway companies, the throwing of rice has been superseded by the throwing of confetti, which, if only in a degree less vulgar, is a great deal less dangerous.

Mr. J. W. Ings, of Kialto Ranch, was in town on Monday evening, and he reports the foothill country to the north-west of his place as being in the grip of the fire fiend.
Fire had broken out in some unaccountable manner, and despite the efforts of the settlers to suppress it, the flames spread over a large territory. He fears that nearly all the pasture will be destroyed unless the fire is controlled very shortly.—High River Times.

The new postoffice is now situated on the corner of Railway ave. and Oiler street.

Lawyer A. J. Arnold, who has just lately arrived in High River, is now open for business.

Oh for a dozen milk cows. It will take only one dry year, we hope, to teach the people of this south country that mixed farming is the ideal way of farming.

Messrs Donald Sinclair, F. Walker, Swartz, and several others were busy last week cutting their fall wheat. They all report a good crop, considering the season.

The married and single men of Cayley fought another game of what they called baseball on Tuesday afternoon, July 19th. But we are still looking for the score.

Mr. Alex Durham had the mishap, when shoeing a horse, of giving his knee a nasty gash. On account of this Mr. Durham will be unable to do any shoeing for a while.

The Bank of Hamilton is opening a branch at the new town of Vulcan. This will make four branches of this bank in 30 miles—Carmangay, Champion, Vulcan and Ingon.

Better than ever—Mr. Bowman, who lives about four miles south-east of Cayley, brought in another sample of wheat which measured 52 inches. This is going some for such a dry year.

The difference between the funeral of a monarch and of any humble citizen is seen in the circumstances and surroundings. But the minister at the burial has to say the same thing in each case. It is "dust to dust."

Although it will be some time before he is around again, and then he must go abroad for some considerable period, Mr. Malcolm Mackenzie, M.L.A. for Macleod, is now reported improving slowly and to be out of danger.

The people of Cayley will be glad to learn that Mr. Bowen, Cayley's barber, is now agent for Becks Wardrobe, of High River. Mr. Becks will clean both ladies and gents' clothes, and pay all express charges both ways.

One day last week an article appeared in the Alberta, entitled "What to eat and drink when the weather is warm." It will tax a great many people to get anything to eat at all. Even water is getting to be a scarce commodity in some districts.

On Tuesday, July 19th, the Nanton junior baseball team played the Cayley Brownies, or played with them. The Nanton boys had the best of the game all the way through, the score being 32 to 5 in their favor. The line-up was: Nanton Juniors—E. Coughlin, C. Featherston, J. Folkard, P. Coughlin, H. Kindt, L. Nison, R. Folkard, C. Kock, L. Coughlin, Cayley Brownies—R. Wickens, J. Bersiegel, R. Robertson, A. Covey, C. Keen, C. Uterburg, J. Wickens, D. Robertson, E. Caspell, Umpire, L. W. Wickens.

Have you subscribed yet for the Hustler? If so, have you sent it to your father, wife's father, or to that friend?

An advertisement is to a merchant very much what sowing seed is to a farmer. It takes a little time for the results to become apparent, but they are sure to come. The wise farmer is not niggardly with his seed, nor the wise merchant with his advertisement.

It is a passable country that produces good crops when conditions are ideal. It is a far better country which produces a crop when conditions are absolutely adverse. It is a grand country when those adverse conditions come along only about once every generation.

A lively game of football was played at Cayley between the High River New-Sweats and the Cayley Thoroughbreds. The New-Sweats scored the first goal, and as the Cayley boys wished to show their breeding they only scored one goal themselves, thus making the game a tie.

The C.P.R. recently purchased 14 acres from Harry Rickards, several miles south of town, and the rumor is now current that a flag station will be built. It is a well known fact that the heavy grade between here and Cayley causes a lot of trouble, and the intention is to put in a siding at the above point so as to enable heavy freight cars to be side tracked and left on the siding while half the train is taken to Cayley, and left there until the engine returns to bring up the balance of the train. The name of the station will be Azure, and in the meantime Harry has visions of a fine little town on his homestead.—High River Times.
